1. The Volkspolizeibereitschaft formerly located in Boitzenburg was moved in April 1950 to Lössau in Saxony. Reports that there was also a VP school in Boitzenburg are inaccurate.
2. The grounds of the Volkspolizei at Boitzenburg, upon which also lies the castle of Boitzenburg, which belonged to Count Joseph von Arnim, is especially carefully guarded by a special kommando (Sonderkommando). This special kommando belongs to the VP-Bereitschaft which is stationed at Pinnow-Brandenburg.*
3. The castle, the central section of which burned down last year, is not designated as a sanatorium for the Volkspolizei but is to be equipped as a "scientific institute" of the East-German Volkspolizei and is to carry on ordnance research.
